Dawn Vandersteen & Little Miss Chrissy Collect $26,176 at The Breeders Elite Incentive

By Tanya Randall

Austin, Manitoba's Dawn Vandersteen and her 5-year-old mare Little Miss Chrissy ("Gigi") topped the Futurity Sweepstakes at The Breeders Elite Incentive, held August 4-6 in Rimbey, Alberta, for an impressive $26,176 payday.

The mare's breeder Jacqueline Rookes, who nominated her farm to Breeders Elite, collected $11,044 for the winning run. All totaled, Gigi is credited with $37,220.

"The money is wonderful," said Vandersteen. "I didn't even realize it was that high! The fact that the breeders get so much money must be wonderful for them. They put out so much money for these programs. It's nice to have that money coming back."

Gigi is by Rookes' late stallion Mr Red Rock Leo Bar, a son of the double bred Leo Bar stallion Flit O Flit. Leo Bar was by Three Bars (TB) and out of Flit, making him a three-quarter brother to Flit Bar, who was by Sugar Bars. Her dam is the Judge Cash mare Kokanee Way.

When Rookes had purchased the Judge Cash mare and Vandersteen told her that if she bred that mare to Red and got a colt, it was "guaranteed sold to her."

"A little filly comes out and I'm like, 'Nope. Nope. Can't do it.' I don't ride mares. I'm not going to buy her," she chuckled. Vandersteen preferred geldings, especially those on the larger size. The petite filly didn't fit her expectations, but she knew better than to say "never" to riding a mare, this one in particular.

"It's funny how these horses come back to me anyway," she laughed. "A friend of mine bought her as a 2-year-old and sent her to a really good trainer. She had a good start on her. This friend asked if I would do the barrel training on her, and I said sure because I always wanted to ride a Judge Cash."

Once she started riding her, Vandersteen knew that she wanted Gigi. She was able to get her bought a month ago.

"It just came so easy for her," she said. "When horses are bred to do something, it's in their blood, it's in their bones. She'd do it in spite of me. I just knew it from the start."

Gigi, who sticks around 15.1-15.2 hands, has steadily been coming on since spring.

"She just wants to go. She's very confident and wants to go. I'm fine with letting them go if I know they're going to come back to me at the barrel, but she wasn't quite there yet. We were still getting things sorted out there," Vandersteen explained.

Throughout the summer, Gigi started getting her wins at larger jackpots and finished third in the Big Bang Futurity average a few weeks ago.

After tipping a barrel on Saturday at The Breeders Elite, Vandersteen and Gigi came back with the winning run in the $116,312 Futurity Sweepstakes.

"When I sent her in, she ran her heart out," she said. "It was great. She's really efficient in her turns and flattens out when she rups."

Vandersteen has been riding and training most of her life. About 10 years ago, she left her office management job to train full time—after having a serious horse accident!

"I got dragged," she recalled. For the record, a mare was responsible for the injury. "When I was lying in bed recuperating instead of thinking about quitting, I was thinking how life is too short and I should quit my office job. I started training full time. I used to take a lot of outside horses but now I mostly buy and train my own to sell.

"This mare was one of the few outside horses that I took, and I did it because I wanted to ride her bloodlines. I knew her sire. I'd ridden about 10 of them and had even ran him as a 5-year-old, and I always wanted to ride a Judge Cash."

Gigi also happens to be in all the Canadian barrel horse incentives, including the Canadian Barrel Horse Incentive Super Stakes.

"I do plan on keeping her long term," said Vandersteen, 62. "I'm getting older too and am not going to be able to compete forever. I see keeping her and years down the road breeding her to something great and enjoying her that way."

Vandersteen wanted to thank Breeders Elite for the great event as well as her veterinarians, Dr. Bailee Stanton of Cochran, Alberta, and Dr. Cyndi Kasper of Winnipeg, Manitoba, for their efforts to keep Gigi and all her other horses feeling their best, and Rookes for raising Gigi: "I just believe in her program. She's put a lot of great horses on the ground and I'm thankful for her breeding them."
